

Help us fight the biggest killer of young men.

When: 10am-4pm, Saturday 11 May 2019

Where: Albany Surf Lifesaving Club
Flinders Parade, Middleton Beach

Suicide kills more young men in Australia than anything else. And we think the solution could come from young men themselves. If you're a guy between 18 and 25 we'll pay you $100 to take part in a Young Men's Project workshop.

The whole purpose of this event is to get guys like you together in a room and help you express your ideas surrounding suicide and mental health. It's got a real no-bull vibe and some guys have even described it as fun. Seriously!

So if you want to make a difference (and some cash) give it a go.

Search Young Men's Project Workshop at eventbrite.com.au to register.

Or, find out more at youngmensproject.com.au

This workshop is backed by Youth Focus, an organisation that gives free face-to-face help to young people and their families. Their work is massively effective, helping thousands of young people.
