

A PLACE AT THE TABLE

Have someone in your life who is questioning their sexuality or might be LGBTQA+?

A Place at the Table has a new program for parents and loved ones, wanting to understand and support someone in their life who is questioning their sexuality or might be LGBTQA+ (lesbian, gay, bisexual, queer, questioning, asexual, and more).

This 4-week program offers a safe space, to discuss and unpack any experiences and anxieties you may be feeling about this and is supported by a queerspace practitioner.

Topics covered

1. Introductions and expectations
2. Discussions about sexuality
3. Parenting and supporting
4. Where to from here? The ongoing process of coming out
